Masons." chiefs of Freemssonry held a meeting recently here to take part in a grand esemblage, or constituante, as it was called, convoked by Garibaldi. Some of the Lodges having refused to abey, the result has been a profound schism in Italian Masonry. One of the principal chiefs who came to instal and preside over the meetings has been expelled from the sect, which caused a great scandal. The subject which this Masonic reguler had to discuss was Rome. Father Pan-taleo, formerly a Sicilian monk, agent of Garibaldi, was to have preached a cru-sade against Rome, and proposed a sub-Of twenty-one years experience in general scription for the necessary expenses.
